Labor in Service of a Higher Calling

From the tranquil hills south of Louisville, the Abbey of Gethsemani offers handmade delicacies crafted with devotion. Since 1848, our community of Trappist monks has lived a life of prayer, silence, and simplicity. Each day is steeped in contemplation yet set aside within this sacred rhythm — the careful creation of our one-of-a-kind fruitcake and rich, time-honored fudge. Born of faithfulness, shaped by tradition, these treats are our humble gift to the world.

Divine Delicacies: The Heart of Our Livelihood

For centuries, Trappist monks have sustained their monastic communities through the work of their hands—a tradition we continue with devotion. At our abbey, we pour our care and craftsmanship into making renowned fruitcakes and rich fudge enjoyed by people around the world. These treats are our sole means of support. Each small batch is prepared with the freshest fruits and nuts, premium chocolate, and authentic Kentucky Bourbon, offering a truly homemade taste. We hope our labor of love brings joy and sweetness to you and your loved ones.

BLESSINGS,
Brother Roger, Operations Manager B. Roger

CELEBRATING 177 YEARS

Our abbey began in 1848 as a foundation in the New World for 44 monks from Melleray Abbey in France. This year marks the 177th milestone as we continue to sustain our monastery through prayer and work.

"We love all your products and have been receiving them for years as presents from my sister, as well as ordering some ourselves. God's abundant blessings!"
— MIKE M.

KENTUCKY BOURBON FUDGE

HANDMADE WITH LOVE

Just miles from the Abbey of Gethsemani, some of the nation's finest barrel-aged bourbon is made — and we believe it works wonders in flavor. This Kentucky classic brings notes of warm spice and smooth caramel, adding a bright yet perfectly balanced sweetness to our fruitcake. When blended into our rich, creamy fudge, it creates a depth of flavor that's irresistibly indulgent and uniquely unforgettable.

Kentucky Bourbon Butter Walnut Fudge

Our rich, buttery white chocolate and walnut fudge is kicked up a notch by adding fine Kentucky Bourbon to the recipe.
